MAY AVERT A STRIKE.

Prospects That Differences May Be Amicably Adjusted.

PLAN PROPOSED BY JOHN JARRETT.

Would Reinstatement All Except President Holloway of Amalgamated Lodge. McKeesport Strikers Quietly Await Outcome of Conference.

Pittsburg, April 18.—The strike situation at McKeesport continues quiet pending the decision of the national advisory board of the Amalgamated association. Some apprehension was felt when 7 o'clock neared, that being the crucial time set by Manager Samuel M. Cooper for the men to return to work or call and get their money and consider themselves discharged. But two men applied for work, and as they quickly yielded to the persuasion of the strikers the attempt to resume operations was for the time abandoned by the company.

Trouble was feared if any number of men had shown a disposition to return to work. A committee of strikers congregated about the entrance of the mill, and the entire police force of the city was out in citizens' clothes ready to quell any disorder, but their services were not needed. The strikers, acting upon the advice of labor leaders, did not call for the wages due them as requested by the management, but decided to wait until the regular payday, April 27.

The national advisory board got together again about 10 o'clock, with 12 of the 15 members present, together with all the vice presidents of the organizations. Two members of the board, those representing No. 4 district in Illinois and No. 7 at Birmingham, Ala., were not called to the present meeting because none of the American Sheet Steel plants are located in those districts. John Ward of Youngstown, O., had not arrived when the conference began, but was expected during the day.

Previous to the meeting there was a formal discussion of the situation. The general attitude of the board was far from conciliatory. The trend of sentiment seemed to be that the union men in all the sheet mills of the United States steel corporation should be called out, and that if that did not have any effect on the company every union man in every plant controlled by the company should be ordered to join the strike.

If the board decides to order the men out, a formal notification to the officers of the United States steel corporation and to the officers of all the underlying companies will be drafted, notifying them that within a reasonable time the failure of the American Sheet Steel company to settle with the men will result in a general strike. In this way the association expects to enlist the efforts of the entire trade, having exhausted every means to secure a settlement before the difficulty spreads beyond the plants of the one company now involved.

Shot at Organized Labor. One member of the board said the whole question seemed to simmer down to the right of organization. The company had admitted to the board that the men had been discharged because they were members of the Amalgamated association, and for no other reason. "If this is the case," said he, "the company has fired a direct shot at organized labor. If the American Sheet Steel company is determined to stand in that light and to declare open war against its men, there seems to be no way out of a determined struggle. It can not drive out organized labor, nor can it shift the fight to this one little plant. It will force the war in all the plants of the company."

Shortly after 12 o'clock John Jarrett, chief of the labor bureau of the American Sheet Steel company, accompanied by William J. Brennan, counsel for the Amalgamated association, went into secret session with the advisory board. It is said Mr. Brennan was present for the purpose of making a draft of the peace agreement that would be a part of the outstanding contracts of the American Sheet Steel company when turned over to the United States steel corporation.

A plan of settlement, based on a proposition made by John Jarrett of the labor bureau of the American Sheet Steel company is that all the men, with the exception of George S. Holloway, be reinstated at once, Holloway's case to be taken up later, and while his reinstatement finally is assured, he will be suspended from work for a period as a matter of discipline. The reason for the exception in the case of Holloway is rumored to be that a personal difficulty between him and Superintendent Persifer F. Smith had put a new feature on his discharge. It is further stated by members of the Amalgamated association that the settlement is all the association required originally, and that a final agreement was made possible when Mr. Jarrett was given authority to act on behalf of the American Sheet Steel company. Mr. Jarrett stated that he had nothing to say for publication, as he had in his address to the advisory board Tuesday covered the advisory board Wednesday covered after cool deliberation a harmonious adjustment could be arrived at.

Members of the board, however, were positive in their assertions that there could be no settlement of the trouble unless all the discharged men at the McKeesport works were reinstated, including George Holloway, the president of the Amalgamated lodge. This, it is said, was the ultimatum of the association. President Shaffer said no hasty action would be taken by the board. The members, he said, are willing to listen to any arguments that may be presented.

BANKS THE MAN.

Man Arrested Here Acknowledges He Took a Horse at Portsmouth, But Says He Did So to Square Accounts.

[Portsmouth Blade.]

Deputy Sheriff Ketter arrived here Tuesday night with his prisoner, John B. Banks, who was at once given a hearing before Squire Hall. He pleaded guilty and was sent to jail. The transcript in the case was sent in early next morning and the case was probably acted upon by the grand jury during the day.

Mr. Foster had no trouble in getting possession of the animal, the purchaser agreeing to give it up, as $70 found on the thief's person was left in the hands of the Kentucky authorities out of which the innocent purchaser will be reimbursed.

The thief proved to be, as was suspected, the same Banks who worked for Mr. Foster up to last October, and ran away, after stealing a shotgun and several loads of corn. He had passed, while there, under the name of Owen Banks.

Banks had evidently adopted horse-stealing as a profession. When captured he had upon him a revolver, a supply of cartridges, a bundle of small torches of resinous pine, which he evidently used to light his way in dark stables, and a large pair of scissors, with which to cut off the manes and tails of his prizes to disguise them. With these he had docked the tail of Mr. Foster's horse.

The Portsmouth Times adds that "Banks worked for Foster seven months and claims that Foster owes him a lot of money. He said he was unable to get any of it, took to drink and took Foster's horse to even matters up. He said that when he got sober he knew he had done wrong, but was afraid to bring the horse back. He now is glad he was caught and hopes to get off easy."

THE CHINN CASE.

Strong Language Used by Chief Justice Paynter in His Dissenting Opinion.

The decision of the Court of Appeals, four of the seven Judges concurring, acquitting County Clerk Claud Chinn, of Fayette County, of the charge of corrupt motives in making false affidavits in a report to the Circuit Judge, was on the ground that no substantial injury accrued to the State by reason of the shortage, which was paid by the Fidelity and Deposit Company, of Baltimore, the official bondsmen of Chinn.

The opinion of the court was written by Justice Burnam and concurred in by Judges O'Rear, DuRelle and Hobson. Judge Guffy did not concur and Chief Justice Paynter and Justice White dissented from the majority opinion.

Judge Paynter delivered the dissenting opinion, which declares that Chinn has been proved guilty and should be removed from office on the information filed by Attorney General Breckinridge. He says that "no jury which desired to preserve its reputation for fairness and integrity could find the defendant not guilty if the question was submitted to it whether he had been guilty of false swearing as a public official." At another point he says that if he should vote to retain Chinn in office upon the proof, that he "would, in effect, say to the clerks of all the courts of the State you can make false reports of the collection and disbursement of public moneys with impunity, unless thereby you succeed in defrauding the State."

Rev. Will McCalla was united in marriage a few days ago at the home of the bride near Tollesboro, to Miss Lizzie C. Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hughes.

BRITAIN'S BIG BUDGET

Income Tax Given a Tilt and a Duty Levied on Sugar.

BIG LOAN IS ALSO CONTEMPLATED.

Enormous Sum on the Wrong Side Of the National Balance Sheet. Conditions to Be Faced by House of Commons.

London, April 18.—The exceptional interest taken in this year's budget statement was evidenced by the crowded condition of the house of commons when it reassembled Thursday. The attendance of members was unusually large, while the appearance of the galleries testified to the deep interest of the house in the fresh taxation proposals required to meet the expenditure for 1901-1902, which, according to a parliamentary paper issued, totals £187,602,000, inclusive of war charges, this being an increase of £32,901,000 over last year. The national balance sheet for 1900-1901, as shown by the same paper, stands as follows: Revenue £130,385,000, expenditures £183,592,000, net deficit, £53,207,000.

Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, chancellor of the exchequer, asks for permission to extend the present borrowing to borrowing on consols. He proposes to suspend the sinking fund and borrow £60,000,000.

The budget submitted by the chancellor of the exchequer will add 2d to the income tax, making it 1s 2d. It does not provide an increase in the duties on beer, wine or tea, spirits or tobacco. A duty of 4s 2d per hundredweight will be imposed on refined sugar. Raw sugar polarizing below 98 is to pay a duty gradually diminishing, according to each degree of polarization to a minimum of 2s at a polarization of 76. A duty of 2s per hundredweight is imposed on molasses. West Indian sugar is not excepted. A duty of 1s 8d per hundredweight is imposed on glucose, and 1s per ton is imposed on exported coal. The total expected yield of the new taxation is £11,000,000, of which £2,500,000 will be from coal.

Much depends upon the reception of the burgetship by the country. The promotion of Mr. Chamberlain to the leadership of the commons and the elevation of Mr. Balfour to the peerage will be hastened if the budget proves unsatisfactory to the nation.

Sir Michael Hicks-Beach will be faced with a united Liberal front, Sir Henry Campbell Bannerman having returned in improved health and Sir William Vernon Harcourt being in the fighting form.

Military circles are also agog over General Roberts' dispatches on the war and the long list of commendations. Lord Methuen's friends are jubilant and General Buller's partisans are disconcerted by the coolness of General Roberts' reference to Buller, although it is hardly credible that General Buller desired his successor in chief command to patronize him.

Cardinals Given Their Hats. Rome, April 18.—At the public consistory the ceremony of imposing the red hats on the new cardinals occurred in the Sala delle Benedizioni in the presence of all the cardinals, bishops, prelates, diplomats, functionaries of the vatican, Roman nobility and numerous invited guests. The pope, who was in excellent health, was warmly cheered. The pontiff, seated on the throne and surrounded by his court, performed the ceremony of imposing the hats and pronounced the pontifical benediction. There was no allocation. Subsequently the pope received the new cardinals in his private apartments.

Waldsee Went Out at Window. Berlin, April 18.—The foreign office has no further details of the Pek'ig fire Wednesday, which destroyed the palace of the empress occupied by Count von Waldsee, has no theory as to its origin, and is awaiting further information on the subject. It is reported that Count von Waldsee escaped from the burning palace through a window with great difficulty. Major General Schwartzkopf of Count von Waldsee's staff appears to have lost his life by returning to the burning building after having escaped. It is believed the fire was started by an incendiary.

Berlin, April 18.—Prince Herbert Bismarck, in a speech at Burg, criticized Emperor William's zigzag course, quoting the elder Bismarck's words: "The way of destruction for the government is to do first this and then that, and promise today what it does not do tomorrow." Prince Herbert praised Count von Buelow as a capable German diplomatist, and recognized Von Buelow's interest in agriculture, but demanded that he follow up this with an agricultural tariff.

KEP' H S VOW.

Kentuckian Swore He Would Kill His Wife and End His Trouble.

Chicago, April 18.—Charles E. Sweeney, local agent for the Worth Tobacco company of Lexington, Ky., shot and killed his wife, Sarah Sweeney, and then took his own life at the Duquesne flats in Rush street. The crime was committed in the apartments of Mrs. W. L. Phillips, a sister of Mrs. Sweeney, and was the execution of a threat made months ago by Sweeney. The Sweeneys formerly lived in Lexington, Ky., where they separated Sweeney coming to this city to represent the Worth company. Recently Sweeney learned that his wife had announced her intention of coming here to visit her sister. "I will kill her if she comes," said Sweeney. "She has caused me a world of trouble, and shall cause me no more."

Mrs. Sweeney arrived a day or two ago. Thursday morning, during the temporary absence of her sister, she went out shopping, returned at 9 o'clock, and stepping into the apartment was met by her husband, who had been admitted by Mrs. Phillips' 6-year-old son. As soon as Mrs. Sweeney grasped her wrist, and, pulling her inside, held the door open and, pointing a revolver at the boy, threatened to shoot him unless he ran. Crying out that murder was being done, the boy fled to the Granada hotel near by, but before help could arrive two shots were heard and the hotel attaches found the man and woman lying on the floor. Mrs. Sweeney was dead and in a few minutes he expired.

The Sweeneys came of good Kentucky families and were well known in Lexington. Mrs. Sweeney's maiden name was Sarah Morgan. She was a daughter of Thomas P. Morgan, a planter at Greenville, Ky.

RAILWAY RATES.

Important Conference at Pittsburg. Martin to Arbitrate.

Pittsburg, April 18.—At an important meeting in this city the Big Four, Vandallia, Erie, Wabash, Cloverleaf, Nickel plate, Lake Shore, Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern and the Cleveland, Akron and Columbus lines are represented by authorized agents.

The question of arbitrating differential rates of the new Buffalo connection of the Pennsylvania system from Akron, O., to Buffalo was left to D. B. Martin, manager of passenger traffic of the Baltimore and Ohio road, as arbitrator, who is hearing representatives of interested lines.

It is understood the Pennsylvania company asked for lower differentials than those of competing lines for St. Louis, Cincinnati and Columbus. The matter was referred by the Central Passenger association to J. F. Goddard, chairman of the trunk line committee, who in turn suggested a board of three arbitrators to adjust the matter, the Panhandle to name one and all the competing lines to select another, and these two to select a third. When it was learned that E. A. Ford, general passenger agent of the Pennsylvania lines west, had selected Mr. Martin, the other lines decided that the whole question be submitted to him as arbitrator.

California Rates.

Delmonte, Cal., April 18.—The Transcontinental Passenger association, in session here, decided that the rate from Chicago to San Francisco and return for the Episcopal convention shall be $50 for a first-class ticket. The rate from the Missouri river will be $45 and from St. Louis and New Orleans $47.50. The round trip rate from California to the Pan-American exposition at Buffalo will be on a basis of $60 to the Missouri river, added to whatever rate may be made east of the river. It was decided to abolish skeleton tickets. The association numbers 36 roads, and the number may be increased to 45 at the next meeting. The Great Northern, Northern Pacific and Canadian Pacific are still out of the association.

Pittsburg to Be the Hub.

Pittsburg, April 18.—It is understood to be the intention of the United States Steel corporation to make Pittsburg the payroll center of its big plants and it is probable the offices of as many plants as possible will be removed here. It is probable that the offices of the American Sheet Steel company and American Steel Hoop company will be returned to Pittsburg from New York, where they were taken some time ago. There is also talk that Pittsburg will be made the headquarters of the National Steel company and the American Tin Plate company. It is the purpose of the combine to keep each of its underlying companies intact, reduce the board of directors to a small group of active men, and to hold the presidents of each company responsible for the conduct of affairs of separate concerns.

Indianapolis, April 18.—Elias C. Atkins, 68, head of the Atkins Saw company, died at his home here.

THE ARGUMENT BEGUN

Attorneys Analyzing the Testimony Offered in Ripley Trial.

THE COURT'S CHARGE TO THE JURY.

Judge Cantrill's Instructions Were Practically the Same as Were in The Powers Case—Conspiracy Must Be Proven.

Frankfort, Ky., April 18.—Judge Cantrill delivered his instructions to the jury in the case of Captain Garnett Ripley, the Goebel assassination suspect, and argument of the case was begun. The instructions are practically the same as those given in the case of Caleb Powers. The first holds that the defendant must be found guilty if the charge that Ripley conspired with Taylor and others to procure Goebel's death, as alleged, has been proven to the satisfaction of the jury. The second says that if the jury believes from the evidence, to the exclusion of a reasonable doubt, that the defendant and others conspired to commit an unlawful act, and that in consequence of that act Goebel was murdered, he is still guilty of murder, though the killing of Goebel might not have been the original object of the unlawful conspiracy. The other instructions relate to the credibility of the co-conspirators as witnesses and to other minor points. The court also added a ninth instruction, to the effect that before the defendant can be convicted the jury must believe beyond all doubt that the defendant entered into the conspiracy prior to Jan. 30 to procure and bring about Goebel's death.

Judge W. P. Major made the first speech for the defense. He said Goebel was as foully murdered as any human being ever was; he did not deny that Goebel was killed with a steel ball and was shot from the secretary of state's office, but he believed with an unalterable opinion that the defendant is innocent of any part in the conspiracy, for Ripley had only a passing acquaintance with Governor Taylor, and did not even know any of the other alleged conspirators.

DUKE'S DEBTS.

Court Relieved Manchester of Paying An Extortionate Claim.

London, April 18.—The suit of Sangumetta against the Duke of Manchester, which was postponed Feb. 27 owing to the duke's absence in America, occupied the court of king's bench today. Plaintiff seeks to recover £500 commission for procuring the duke a loan of £10,000. The defense pleaded that the terms of the loan were unreasonable. Mr. Zimmerman, father-in-law of the duke, was in court. Sangumetta testified that the duke said he wanted £500 in connection with a marriage that he had his life insured for £50,000, and that he was making a good income as correspondent for a New York paper. Plaintiff admitted that he charged 25 per cent yearly interest, which he said was not exorbitant under the circumstances.

After evidence that the Manchester estates in England and Ireland showed a yearly deficit and that the income did not suffice to meet the mortgages, charges and jointures of the dowager duchesses, judgment was given in favor of the defendant on the ground that Sangumetta had never found any one able or willing to provide the loan, on which he claimed commission, on the actual security available.

Russia Fears Labor Riots.

St. Petersburg, April 18.—Although the students remain quiescent, the authorities are disturbed by the attitude of the working people, and isolated troubles are considered unavoidable May 1. The working people are attempting to introduce labor day observances. Practically all operatives of the St. Petersburg Steel company, an immense concern, which, among other things, manufactures ordnance, recently demanded a half holiday and full pay. When the demands were refused they broke into the manager's office, forced the company's officials to flee for their lives, tore their fur coats into shreds, and burned valuable books and papers. Police and mounted gendarmes chased and routed the rioting workmen.

Arrested For Alleged Fraud.

Nashua, N. H., April 18.—Joel Emerson, who hails from Vermont, was arrested here on a warrant issued by the United States officials charging him with using the mails for fraudulent purposes. His arrest was caused by Franklin J. Moore of Philadelphia, assistant United States manager of the General Accident Assurance company of Scotland and vice president of the International Association of Accident Underwriters. Mr. Moore has just returned from the west, where he secured the arrest and conviction of the celebrated accident insurance fraud, Gilbert J. Moffatt.

LOOKS MORE FAVORABLE.

Hon. A. M. J. Cochran's Chances For the U. S. District Judgeship Are Improving.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Senator De-boe, Representatives Boreing and Irwin
 and Richard P. Ernst, of Covington, spent an hour with the President this morning in discussing Kentucky offices.
 All the persons in the conference are re-tent concerning the meeting. Enough is learned, however, to warrant the statement that the Kentucky Congressmen are not so certain of the appointment of former Governor Bradley to the Judgeship as they were. Immediately after the adjournment of Congress several friends of the former Governor visited the White House and expressed absolute confidence that Bradley would be elevated to the Federal bench. Now comes the report that Bradley's appointment is by no means certain, and in fact in great doubt.

It is almost incredible that this change has been caused by Bradley's testimony in the Ripley trial at Frankfort,
 yet it is said here in circles usually well informed that such is the case. By some it is stated without reserve that because Bradley took the witness stand and did the only thing which could have been expected of him, he has severely injured
 his chances for the Judgeship.

Mr. Bradley's friends here say that if his testimony has actually caused him to be turned down, it is by indirection only
 —that is, certain support he possessed before the trial has been alienated by the former Governor's reference to Taylor. It has been well known here for several days that Senator Deboe was weakening on Bradley, presumably on account of the developments in the Ripley trial. Hence with Deboe lukewarm there is no reason why the President should not drift back to Judge A. M. J.
 Cochran, of Mayeville, who will be appointed unless Representatives Irwin and Boreing and other friends of the former Governor are able to bring about a change.

NEAL M. LEACH.

Former Maysvillian Continues to Work His Way Up—Made General Agent of Mobile and Ohio.

[Chattanooga News.]

It used to be a saying in Kentucky that in all the varying climate from the North Pole to hades a traveler would find some Maysville man holding down
 an important post at every stopping place.

During the boom days there were twenty-three young men from that town
 apparently prospering in Chattanooga.

Among the number was Neal M.
 Leach, then with the Commissary Department of the Alabama Great Southern Road. He is a son of Mr. C. S. Leach, of the government river service and brother of last year's spring festival queen.

On May 1 he becomes General Agent of the Mobile and Ohio at New Orleans.

The story is told by the New Orleans
 Daily Item as follows:

N. M. Leach, for the past four years commercial freight agent for the New Orleans and Northeastern Railway in this city, on May 1 will become General Agent for the Mobile and Ohio Railroad with headquarters in this city, vice R. C.
 Perkins, resigned to accept the position of Division Freight Agent with the Illinois Central. The appointment of Mr.
 Leach was semi-officially announced and later this week the official circular will be issued. The General Agent-elect of the Mobile and Ohio was born near Maysville, Ky., just thirty-one years ago, and after preliminary private and public school education spent three years at the University of Kentucky at Lexington, and fifteen years ago he did his first bit of work among a surveying party that was laying out the route of the Chesapeake and Ohio road from Catlettsburg to Covington, young Leach acting as "rod man" or "rod boy."

Thirteen years ago Mr. Leach joined the force of the Queen and Crescent system at Chattanooga, entering the purchasing department and then continuously served in various other positions of responsibility, ending in Chief of the Commissary Department and Paymaster. In 1897 Mr. Leach was transferred to New Orleans and created Commercial Agent in place of Mr. E. D. Wolfe, who went to Texas to represent the Northeastern in Dallas. As stated before Mr. Leach on the first proximo becomes General Agent for the Mobile and Ohio.

Since his residence in New Orleans
 Mr. Leach has gathered around him a large number of warm friends, both in social circles and among the prominent shippers of the Crescent City.

The new General Agent is in the full vigor of splendid manhood, chock full of energy, "swift" when it comes to the securing of business, well liked by the commercial men of the city and particularly by those of "Sugar Row," and is willingly recognized as an exceptionally capable railroad official. The Mobile and Ohio have chosen wisely in selecting
 Mr. Leach, for there are few other men, if any, resident railroad men that can come as near to keeping up the record of his predecessor in office as can Mr.
 Leach. Personally Mr. Leach is one of most charming men possible to meet, he is well liked by the newspaper men, is a member of the Pickwick Club, quite in demand at prominent social functions
 during the season, and is a Royal Arch Mason.

 stockholder and President of the Mt. Oli-fifty apiece—Capt. J. Q. Ward being high gun among the Kentuckians, with forty-eight, and Arthur Gambell leading the Cincinnati contingent with forty-seven.

 A return match will be shot at Paris in May.

 district and $2,750 for home and household goods, leaving to erect a city hall
 the handsome sum of $14,544.

A. H. Williams, a drummer who travels for the Whittemore shoe house, got too

 ore Neekamp, and was fined $5 and costs for extras. The evidence showed that Williams sailed into Mr. Neekamp's store in a pretty breezy manner and presented his card to Miss Emma Neekamp, striking her hand with his. He appeared quite flippant and met Miss Neekamp's cool responses in a very fresh way.
 She told him that they did not want any of his goods, but he said he would "come back this evening" to see the buyer and bring her some American Beauty roses. When her brother came in she told him of the occurrence and he followed Williams and gave him a thumping.

 Enquirer says: "The people have now got just the boat, roomy and fast, and one that makes the schedule time right up to the minute. There is deck room for all the cargo and a finely furnished and electric lighted cabin, good enough for a King to travel in."

Hosiery....

Our effort to supply our patrons with the best merchandise that can be procured is verified in our unequalled 25c. Stocking for women. It is justly acknowledged the best made—each pair representing the total of stocking perfection. It is only necessary to sell a woman one pair to gain her as a regular visitor to our hosiery section. Many women who have accounts elsewhere and buy nothing more from us are regular customers for

Our 25-Cent Stocking!

The say it can't be matched in Maysville. Strong assertions? Yes!
 But we have the goods to substantiate and emphasize every word of praise bestowed. For those not familiar with this "Peerless"
 Stocking we name six of the qualities that make its perfection—

Cold Rain That Set In Thursday Morning
Still Falling—Some Snow Last Night.

The present wintry spell of weather is one of the worst of the season, and the fruit buds are in danger of serious injury. The cold rain that fell nearly all day Thursday changed to a mixture of rain, hail and snow at 10 o'clock last night, and is still falling at this writing, the precipitation at 7 a. m. amounting to 1.58 inches, the heaviest since last November. Some peach and pear trees are in bloom and a hard freeze would cause great injury. The temperature was down to 34° last night.

TROUBLE OVER A HORSE.

Maysville and Dover Parties Figure in a Suit to Settle Estate of the Late Alfred Lewis.

[Dover News.]

Considerable litigation in a small way is being hatched out over the settlement of the estate of the late Alfred Lewis, which will require the proverbial Philadelphia lawyer to untangle.

Those tangled up in the affair are A. E. Cole & Son, the Maysville lawyers, Sam Nower, administrator, Mrs. Lewis, Bill Lewis, Langhorne T. Fox and Marshal Lippert. Cole & Son are attorneys for the administrator and took charge of a horse, which was in Alfred Lewis' possession when he died, presumably to secure their fees.

Bill Lewis claims and produces witnesses to prove that the horse was his. He proposed to turn the same over to Mr. L. T. Fox, undertaker, as part payment in the funeral expenses of his father. By instructions from Police Judge Curran Marshal Lippert went to Cole's farm after the animal and turned the same over to Mr. Fox, who sold her and placed the proceeds to the credit of the funeral bill.

Last Saturday evening Langhorne Fox, Marshal Lippert and Bill Lewis were served with a warrant sworn out in Esquire Grant's court, charging them with feloniously robbing the dead by stealing the horse.

The warrant was sworn out by Mrs. Lewis. The case was called Monday, but on account of the absence of the prosecuting witness the trial was set for next Monday.

In this character of litigation there can be but one result. The charge of horse-stealing will not be sustained, but the parties will be put to considerable expense and bitter feeling will naturally be engendered that years will not eliminate. The courts are already too much burdened with spitework litigation.

Mr. James Douglass, of Commerce street, left this week for Oklahoma Territory, where he intends staking in a claim.

The News says an attempt was made recently to burn a barn near Dover in which 12,000 pounds of uninsured tobacco was housed.

A Raging, Roaring Flood
Washed down a telegraph line which Chas. C. Ellis, of Lisbon, Ia., had to repair. "Standing waist deep in icy water," he writes, "gave me a terrible cold and cough. It grew worse daily. Finally the best doctors in Oakland, Neb., Sioux City and Omaha said I had consumption and could not live. Then I began using Dr. King's New Discovery and was wholly cured by six bottles." Positively guaranteed for coughs, colds and all throat and lung troubles by J. Jas. Wood & Son. Price 50c. and $1. Trial bottles free.

Quite a number of our young folks attended a very enjoyable social at the home of Tom Curtis, of Oak Woods, Wednesday night. Some of the party lost their way and wandered for quite a while in the lonely woods.

Mr. Robertson, candidate for Sheriff, and Deputy Sheriff Mackey were here calling on friends last week.

The anniversary birthday had opened here again Monday, the 15th, by the gathering of a number of relatives and friends at the beautiful home of Robert H. Williams in honor of the sixty-fourth anniversary of his birth. A sumptuous dinner was served at the hands of the hospitable host and hostess and the guests happily enjoyed the occasion. Among those present were Miss Mary Reo, of Gallia County, Ohio, accompanied by her aunt, and with whom she is spending the summer in Maysville for the purpose of receiving a course of instrumental instruction from competent teachers of the city. The day passed pleasantly and all departed wishing the clever host and hostess many happy returns of the event. Later in the evening Edgar Morland, Stanley Beagle and Charles R. Williams arrived and discoursed some fine selections on violin, banjo and guitar, which were enjoyed immensely by Mr. Williams, who handsomely served the trio with refreshments.

The lunch to be served will probably be the most interesting feature.
